Cricket

College fielded 19 cricket teams over the weekend, most matches being played against Northwood, with a couple of fillers against Carter and St Charles College. It was a great start to the season with College winning 14 of the 17 matches against Northwood, losing three and none were drawn. In summary, College won 15 of the 19 matches played over the weekend, only losing 4.

1st XI cricket match report

Maritzburg College 1st XI not able to finish off

It could have gone either way against Northwood.

College won the toss and bowled first due to moisture in the track. The opening pair of Elliott and Gengan bowled superbly up front reducing Northwood to 44 for 5. However, without Hollaway and Khumalo, College were unable to finish off Northwood. Some responsible batting, with a few chances going begging, allowed Northwood to reach 268 for 8 in their allotted 50 overs. A crucial decision with Martins on 0 and shouldering arms, was a massive turning point in the game as he went on to score 106. Credit must be paid to a superb innings.

College got off to a slow start following some disciplined bowling from the Northwood openers. College fought back well with Campbell and van der Walt accelerating the innings, but tight bowling from the three Northwood spinners continuously put College under pressure and the run rate increased significantly. With 7 runs needed per over in the last 25 overs, a boundary an over was the minimum requirement, but College lost wickets regularly and were never really in the chase. Fortmann and Saayman displayed some College fight, but in the end to no avail.

Northwood 268 for 8. Elliott 3/38, Saayman 2/53 and Gengan 2/68.
College 204 for 8. van der Walt 52, Campbell 40 and Saayman 28no.

College lost by 64 runs.

Basketball

College's basketball teams dominated against Northwood winning all 11 of their matches with some excellent scores. Our 1st team won 52-36 while the 2nd team posted a final score of 71-17.

1st team Basketball report: College vs Northwood

Jenny Orchard: Master in Charge

College hosted Northwood for the first game of the Stayers season with 8 new players in the side. As is always the case with basketball there was a very positive vibe around the school on Friday.

The first quarter was a passive affair with the College starting 5 let the occasion get to them and College played to opposition's pace rather than executing their own game plan. The quarter ended 11 – 7 in College's favour.

The second quarter was not an exciting period of play with both teams missing field attempts and only 6 points were scored by both sides.

The second half resulted in an energised College team running on to the court. They played as a team and placed trust in each other especially in the Junior members of the team. N Ngcobo came into his own in the third quarter and showcased his skills by converting most of his shots and put the team on the front foot. College scored 17 points in this quarter.

The defensive structure allowed Northwood some easy buckets in the closing quarter and College found themselves once again on team fouls. This played into Northwood's hands as their No 25 was their key player who converted most of his shots.

This was a promising start to the 2018/2019 season with College winning 52 – 36. The captain, Philani Simamane, and vice-captain, Nhlakanipho Phenyane, top scoring with 11 points each.
