

Fuller House News

Term 1 - 2025

HOUSEMASTER'S REPORT

As the first term of 2025 concludes, we reflect on a period of camaraderie, growth, and excellence that defines Fuller House. This term has been one to celebrate, filled with remarkable achievements and a shared sense of purpose.

Our matric boys of 2025 have seized the opportunities of their final year, creating moments on Goldstone's and beyond that will become cherished memories to share with fellow Old Collegians in the years ahead. Your dedication, leadership, and ability to balance academics, sport, and house involvement are commendable—keep setting the bar high and inspiring the rest of the house as you pursue your dreams.

This term also brought exceptional contributions to the summer sports fixtures, with the same energy and commitment now carrying into winter sports. As we approach the break, remember to train and prepare with pride, always representing Fuller House and Maritzburg College when you take to the field.

Beyond sports, we've enjoyed vibrant house events like the Virtus Challenge, the swimming gala, house singing and dancing and athletics. These activities have highlighted the incredible talent, spirit, and unity of Fuller House. Discipline, central to our values, continues to define what it means to be a Fuller boy—whether in the classroom, on the sports field, or in daily interactions. Let's keep upholding the highest standards of character and conduct.

Academics remain at the heart of success, and we applaud the hard work demonstrated by so many this term. Fuller House is not just a day house—it is a family built on care, respect and mutual support. A heartfelt appreciation goes to our mentor teachers and house leaders for their dedication and guidance, as well as to each boy for embodying Fuller values and teamwork.

As we move into the holidays, I encourage everyone to spend quality time with loved ones, recharge, and return ready for the challenges and opportunities of term two. Together, we rise—here's to another term of excellence ahead.